

ANTHEM

Stylish Sacramento Street's latest design store is the perfect showcase for owner Janelle Loevner's favorite spring things: Laguiole en Aubrac flatware with turquoise handles, Juliska pendant lights that resemble raindrops and feather-weight cashmere blankets by Rani Arabella. "To me, spring is about lighter textures and items from nature that stay in their purest form," explains Loevner. 3274 Sacramento St., S.F., 415-440-6500; anthemsf.com. LEILANI MARIE LABONG

Nouveaux Classics

With timeless interior pieces, worldly decor and quiet elegance, three home design stores continue to make waves in San Francisco, Yountville and Healdsburg

LIME STONE

Right off Healdsburg's ever-quiet town plaza, Lime Stone charms with wine country decor and accessories. Wife of famed chef Charlie Palmer, owner Lisa Palmer offers her spring faves. "Personalization is big. I'm sourcing one-of-a-kind decoupage alphabet plates from an artisan in California, plus handmade letter necklaces from local jeweler Julie Brown. And the color we are all buzzing about is Mimosa." 315 Healdsburg Ave., Healdsburg, 707-433-3080; limestonehealdsburg.com. A.C.S.

MAISONRY

Steps away from the French Laundry in Yountville is Maisonry, a new art and design gallery from Blackbird winery owner Michael Polenske. "Our guests can relax in the garden, sip cult wines and view custom-made wine country garden furnishings," he explains. Maisonry's chic interiors display rustic French antiques alongside new works by David Linley, Hudson Furniture and Citizen: Citizen. 6711 Washington St., Yountville, 707-944-0889; maisonry.com. D.D.S.

Top Tomes for Spring

1. Villa by John Saladino, Frances Lincoln Limited, $95. 2. San Francisco Kitchens by Miki Usui, Jeu de Paume/Shufunotomasha, price upon request. 3. Ranch Houses: Living the California Dream by David Weingarten and Lucia Howard, Photography by Joe Fletcher, Rizzoli, $50.

